

FROM HEC UK ART CLUB

Museums and galleries are finally reopening their doors from 17th May in the UK! For this wonderful occasion, we picked for you the brightest exhibitions in London in 2021:

1. Alice: curiouiser and curiouiser, at V&A

Lewis Carroll - a theatrical immersive journey down the rabbit hole! Exploring its origins, adaptations and reinventions over 157 years, this immersive and theatrical show charts the evolution of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland from manuscript to a global phenomenon beloved by all ages.

From May 22 - Dec 31 - Victoria and Albert Museum (Cromwell Road, Kensington & Chelsea London, SW7)

www.vam.ac.uk/exhibitions/alice-curiouiser-and-curiouiser

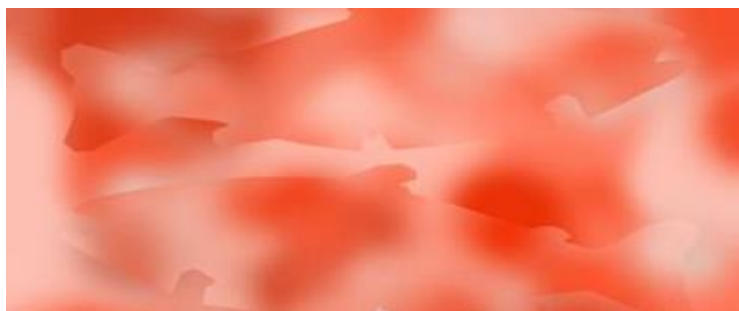

2. A Red Herring at TATE BRITAIN

With 2 contemporary artists, Pascual et Schwabe; Salmon: A Red Herring explores the deceptive reality of salmon as a colour and as a fish.

Cooking Sections are Daniel Fernández Pascual and Alon Schwabe. Their long-term project CLIMAVORE explores the relationship between how we eat and the climate emergency.

Until 31 August 2021 – Tate Britain (Westminster, Millbank London SW1P 4RG)

www.tate.org.uk/whats-on/tate-britain/exhibition/cooking-sections

3. David HOCKNAY at ROYAL ACADEMY

In the midst of a pandemic, David Hockney RA captured the unfolding of spring on his iPad, creating 116 new and optimistic works in praise of the natural world. (Never shown before artworks and in exclusivity).

From 23 May — 26 September 2021 - Main Galleries, Burlington House, Royal Academy of Arts (Piccadilly, London W1J 0BD)

www.royalacademy.org.uk/exhibition/david-hockney

4. Michael Armitage, Paradise Edict at Royal Academy

From 22 May – 19 September 2021, The Jillian and Arthur M. Sackler Wing of Galleries, Royal Academy of Arts (Piccadilly, London W1J 0BD)

<https://www.royalacademy.org.uk/exhibition/michael-armitage>

www.youtube.com/watch?v=vuObcCoXLok

5. Wild Life Photographer of the year at National History Museum

From 17 May - 1 August 2021, National History Museum (South Kensington, Cromwell Road London SW7 5BD)

www.nhm.ac.uk/visit/exhibitions/wildlife-photographer-of-the-year.html

6. RODIN at TATE MODERN

Working at the turn of the 20th century, Auguste Rodin broke the rules of classical sculpture to create an image of the human body that mirrored the ruptures, complexities and uncertainties of the modern age.

From 18 May – 21 November 2021, TATE MODERN (The Eyal Ofer Galleries, Bankside, London SE1 9TG)

www.tate.org.uk/whats-on/tate-modern/exhibition/ey-exhibition-rodin

